

Maison Agricole D&D di Dellio Daniela

The Maison Agricole D&D is a small family farming business, based on the hill in Aosta.

Cultivating vineyards, treated with cow's milk to prevent powdery mildew, all of them on steep slopes, mainly done by hand, with only limited use of phytochemicals and the exclusive use of organic fertilisers, in line with the practice of a holistic approach to protect the environment.

Both native grape varieties are grown:

- Petit Rouge,
- Fumin,
- Cornalin,
- Petite Arvine,

And international varieties:

- Gamay,
- Pinot Noir,
- Syrah,
- Moscato.

The company also produes honey, only in the Aostan Valley – from Aosta to La Thuile, which expresses the essence of the mountain "terroir".

Languages spoken: French and English.
